This is to serve as a reminder to (Fill in your full name)

that her redemption has been fully paid by Jesus Christ at the cost of His pure and precious blood through His completed work on the cross.

By faith, _____ has believed and received what has been accomplished on her behalf through the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ.

Through Christ's work, she is a new creation and has been freed from a life of slavery.

Through her adoption, _____ now has access to all rights and privileges given by her Father, because she is His daughter, now and forever.
